

Contingency planning – remote learning

Scenario	Action
A child is unable to attend school as they are self-isolating	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Teachers will upload to Google classroom resources used in class and/or lessons from Oak National Academy: https://classroom.thenational.academy/ ➤ All children have been provided with up-to-date access details to other school remote learning programmes e.g. Mathematics and Reading Eggs. ➤ The school website will have an up-to-date school closure section with information and resources to support remote learning. ➤ Parents/carers will be told to email the school office for further support/guidance.
A child is unable to attend school due to being identified in the government’s vulnerable group list	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Teachers will upload to Google classroom resources used in class and/or lessons from Oak National Academy: https://classroom.thenational.academy/ ➤ All children have been provided with up-to-date access details to other school remote learning programmes e.g. Mathematics and Reading Eggs. ➤ The school website will have an up-to-date school closure section with information and resources to support remote learning. ➤ School will make regular contact with the child and family by phone. ➤ Parents/carers will be told to email the school office for further support/guidance.
Partial closure - a year group bubble needs to close due to a Covid case (less than two weeks)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Children will be required to register daily on Google classroom; SLT will follow up children not doing so. ➤ Teachers will immediately provide remote learning for maths, English and the wider curriculum using Google classroom. Children will be provided with feedback on their work and will be able to communicate with their class teacher. Teachers will create learning videos with voiceovers for maths and English, and lessons will build knowledge and skills. ➤ If a teacher is unwell and unable to produce remote lessons, lessons will be provided for that class by partner teachers within the school, or within the federation if necessary.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ All children have been provided with up-to-date access details to other school remote learning programmes e.g. Mathletics and Reading Eggs. ➤ The school website will have an up-to-date school closure section with information and resources to support remote learning. ➤ Parents/carers will be directed to email the school office for further support/guidance.
Full closure – the whole school needs to close due to multiple cases or full lockdown (two weeks or more)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Children will be required to register daily on Google classroom; SLT will follow up children not doing so. ➤ Teachers will immediately provide remote learning for maths, English and the wider curriculum using Google classroom. Children will be provided with feedback on their work and will be able to communicate with their class teacher. Teachers will create learning videos with voiceovers for maths and English, deliver live lessons for the wider curriculum, and lessons will build knowledge and skills. ➤ If a teacher is unwell and unable to produce remote lessons, lessons will be provided for that class by partner teachers within the school, or within the federation if necessary. ➤ If teachers are required to attend school to provide childcare for vulnerable children or children of keyworkers during a lockdown, lessons will be provided for that class by partner teachers within the school, or within the federation if necessary. ➤ Weekly small group discussion sessions will take place with the class teacher. ➤ All children have been provided with up-to-date access details to other school remote learning programmes e.g. Mathletics and Reading Eggs. ➤ The school website will have an up-to-date school closure section with information and resources to support remote learning. ➤ Parents/carers will be directed to email the school office for further support/guidance.